

Performer of the Year 2025 Charlotte Loukola

Finlandia Foundation National proudly presents violinist Charlotte Loukola in a captivating solo performance that takes audiences on a musical journey across the globe—from the United States to South America and Europe.

Charlotte's program showcases the violin's versatility across genres, blending her artistry with personal storytelling. Having studied at both Finland's prestigious Sibelius Academy Youth Department and the renowned Juilliard School of Music in New York, Charlotte brings technical brilliance and heartfelt passion to the stage.

The performance culminates with a tribute to her Finnish roots, featuring traditional folk melodies and a nod to her great-uncle Hannes Laine, a pioneer of Finnish accordion music in New York City. Experience the warmth and spirit of Finland through Charlotte's remarkable violin performance—a celebration of culture, connection, and timeless music.

For more about Charlotte:
www.charlotteloukola.com

For information about FFN:
FinlandiaFoundation.org

